

From the Counseling Office

NOTES FROM MRS. McRAE:

Here is wishing everyone a wonderful and safe summer! Here are a few last things before you leave school:

Elective Schedule Changes:

If you need to change an elective choice please see Mrs. McRae or Mr. Gabehart before you leave for summer break. Counselors will also check emails throughout the summer and will be working the week of June 2-4 if you want to stop in to talk about your schedule.

Volunteer Opportunity:

If you want to get a jump on service hours, Camp Freedom is looking for camp counselors (must be 16 to volunteer) the week of July 14, serving foster children in the Kentuckiana area-working the camp logs 80 service hours if you stay the week (my daughter volunteered so see me if you need more info). <https://lionscampcrescendo.org/campfreedom>

Job Opportunity:

HIGH SCHOOLERS—GET JOB READY AT THE Y! The workforce development program is designed to expand and diversify the Y's talent pipeline by exposing young people to careers at the YMCA. The program utilizes research-driven strategies that provide participants with paid career readiness, employability skills training, hands-on work experiences, professional mentorship, and more. The application deadline is June 8. You can read more about this opportunity here.

NOTES FROM MR. GABEHART:

Class of 2025 Graduates:
