PIONEER RAFFLE KICK-OFF

The Pioneer Raffle kicks off next week at the House meeting on Thursday, March 6. All students are asked to sell at least three tickets at $20 each to help meet the school's goal of $25,000 in raffle tickets sold. The deadline to turn in ticket stubs and payment will be March 21. (Seniors attending the March retreat must turn theirs in by March 18.)

There are a number of incentives to encourage students to sell at least five tickets in order for the school to reach its goal. Students who turn in five ticket stubs and $100 by the deadline will receive the following incentives:

- Individual Free Day (must be taken between March 31 and April 16. Exclusions: Juniors registered for retreat may not take their free day on April 10 or 11, and seventh graders may not take a free day on April 15 due to a field trip.) Parents must call the hotline to report the free day.
- Week of Spirit Wear April 7-11
- Top Sellers Prizes: $125 to the student raising the highest

SENIOR EARNS FULL TUITION SCHOLARSHIP

Senior Nolan Carrico was surprised earlier this month with the presentation of a full tuition scholarship to Hanover College. Nolan was one of 10 prospective first-year students awarded the Benjamin Templeton Scholarship, which is based on academic excellence and commitment to leadership, multiculturalism and social justice. The four-year renewable scholarship covers the full cost of tuition and is designed to identify and reward students who have made significant leadership and cultural contributions to their high school communities. Nolan also will play tennis at the NCAA Division II school.

Senior parents can read about other scholarship awards and keep up with deadlines in the college application process by reading the "Life after High School" newsletter produced by the Guidance Department. Click here for past issues.

PROM PROJECT COLLECTING DRESSES, MONEY TO HELP OTHERS

The House of Loyalty is sponsoring its second annual Prom Project dress drive. The Prom Project is a local Christian-based charity in Kentuckiana whose mission is to help girls in our area who can't afford the expenses associated with Prom. The House began collecting items on Monday and will continue through Friday, Feb. 28. So far, the House has collected about eight dresses and expects to receive at least 10 more in addition to other money donations and accessories.

MEYER SIGNS TO PLAY FOR IUPUI

Senior Autumn Meyer has signed a letter of intent to Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis to play soccer at the NCAA Division I school in 2014.

Autumn was a four-year starter for the 2011 State Champion and 2012 State Runner-up Girls Soccer team. She was ranked No. 3 in the state for goalkeeper her freshmen year and ranked No. 1 her sophomore year. She was a four-time All-Area and two-time All-District player. Autumn plans on studying law with a minor in business at IUPUI.

ART ASSIGNMENTS TO DECORATE SCHOOL

Students in Mr. Rick Stuber's Drawing and Painting classes have begun decorating the school with urban art. Sophomore Mary Nokes' work is decorating the front of Mrs. Connie Scharre's desk with a painting of books stacked to spell 'read.'

River Valley Financial Website

Dr. Toni Sartini Website

Sophomore Emma Kempf created a piece that represents this year's theme of Brick by Brick, and a group of juniors has created a large representation of a flower garden complete with a fountain.

Sarah Posante, Carlie Combs and Julie Bottorff worked on the latter project, starting it in Drawing class first semester and finishing it in Painting class this semester. Sarah said they are excited about displaying the art but are looking for a wall large enough on which to hang it where it would also be safe from students bumping into it.

SIXTH GRADERS VISIT PROVIDENCE

Sixth grade students from St. Mary of the Knobs and St. Paul enjoyed a group shadow day at Providence Junior High last week. (Students from St. Joe Corydon were on a delayed schedule and unable to attend.) Prospective seventh grade students and their families participated in the Junior High Open House earlier this week.

PARENT CONNECTION

SAVE THE DATE: SENIOR/MOMS LUNCH

All seniors and their mothers or special adult female are invited to attend the Senior/Moms Farewell Luncheon, to be held Sunday, April 13.

Invitations will be mailed in early March. This is a special meal for seniors and their mothers or other significant female in their life, so mark your calendars now.

ISTEP TESTING MOVED

ISTEP testing for junior high students has been rescheduled for March 17-19 from the originally scheduled dates of March 3-5 due to the number of days lost due to inclement weather.

REMINDER SNOW MAKE-UP DAYS

This is a reminder that the second week of Spring Break is now a regular school week to make up for missed snow days. Spring Break is now March 24-28 only. Additionally, the third quarter now ends March 14.

SPRING MUSICAL CHILDREN'S EVENT

Children ages preschool through grade six are invited to a special spring musical pre-show event featuring characters from The Sound of Music on Sunday, March 9, from noon to 1:30 p.m. in the Activity Center. The pre-show event includes a picture with cast members of The Sound of Music, lunch, drink, treats and crafts. Parents must sign-in students and then are free until 1:30 p.m. $10 per student. (Price does not include tickets to the performance.) RSVP required. Click here for registration form.

The spring musical opens in less than two weeks. Tickets are on sale now for $15 and $8 for students through grade eight. Show times are March 8 at 7:30 p.m., March 9 at 2 p.m., March 14 and 15 at 7:30 p.m. and March 16 at 2 p.m. Order tickets by leaving a message at the box office at (812) 945-2538 ext. 328 or order online via the Providence website by clicking on the Buy Tickets Now button on the right navigation bar.

Theatre alumni are encouraged to attend on Friday, March 14. Members of the 1965 cast of The Sound of Music are especially encouraged to attend that evening. Nearly 50 years ago, this group of students staged the Providence production of the popular musical for the first time. A group of seats has been reserved for returning members of the cast, and tickets can be ordered by calling \(812\)945-2538 ext. 328945-2538) and asking for the 1965 Spring Musical Cast.

Tickets for premiere night, Friday, March 7, are sold separately. For more information, contact Dale Durham at \(812\) 945-2538 ext. 309945-2538) or ddurham@providencehigh.net.
